

100

ideas for your
Multi-Sensory Room

AN INSPIRATIONAL
ONE DAY COURSE!

The Agenda

Sensory Construction

Introduction to the multi-sensory room/environment.

Creative Curves

Creating a magical environment: big or small.

Boxes and Brolleys

Personalised sensory environments for early sensory skills: low tech and high tech.

Cheap & Cheerful

Small cheap ideas for environments in classrooms and day rooms.

Bubble Bath

Immerse yourself in ideas for your bubble tubes, fibre-optics and much more.

Investigating Imagery

New ideas for Solar, Mirage and data projectors.

Sensational Sounds

Introducing 'Animusic', voice distortion and sound effects.

Stimulating Studios

Do you need a Wii or just a flight in an Xwing fighter?

Electrifying Education

Making learning fun!

About Richard Hirstwood

Richard Hirstwood is a motivational and accomplished international presenter in the field of sensory learning. His extensive experience is based upon practical knowledge - giving him the insight into what works, and more importantly, what doesn't in multi-sensory practice. To date, he has inspired early years practitioners, teachers and therapists across Europe, Asia, the Middle East, Australia and the America's.

Who is the course for?

All practitioners working with pre-5's, children and students with additional needs, in primary and secondary special education, in inclusive settings and across mainstream primary and secondary education. Peripatetic teachers, as well as advisory teachers and portage workers, will also find this training invaluable.

What if i don't have a Multi-Sensory Room?

Many ideas will be presented during the day on how to create and develop portable sensory spaces and equipment - that won't cost the earth!

Even if you do have a dedicated space - discover how to generalise learning opportunities and experiences outside your room with additional materials!

A free DVD of '100 Ideas for your Multi-Sensory Room'

To support this course you will receive a free DVD which means that you can share and feedback to your team with confidence and in a fun and informative way! Ideal for staff meetings!

Costs

£185 (ex V.A.T.) - This includes a DVD, all refreshments and at least 100 new ideas for your sensory room or studio or classroom from Richard Hirstwood!

Booking

Online: www.multi-sensory-room.co.uk

Telephone: 01524 426395

Fax: 01524 452054

Post: Hirstwood Training Ltd
237 Heysham Rd
Heysham
LA3 1NN

Dates and locations available

20th October 2008	Manchester	1st December 2008	Chester
22nd October 2008	Birmingham	3rd December 2008	Edinburgh
11th November 2008	Norwich	26th January 2009	Nottingham
13th November 2008	Brighton	30th January 2009	Sheffield
26th November 2008	Dunstable	9th February 2009	Carlisle